- All guests participating in the tour are required to read, understand, and sign a liability waiver.
- An instructor driven sled is strongly recommended for bookings with one adult and one small child.
- Please note that this tour requires a minimum of 2 participants, please call the day prior to confirm the tour.
- Please note that once at the trail in Spray Lakes Provincial Park, the tour lasts about four hours with 3 hours of dog sledding, a 30-minute introduction, and 30 minutes by the campfire. Please allow 4 hours from the time that you meet at the office in Canmore. Once checked in at the office, guests will be transported to the trailhead in Spray Lakes Provincial Park near Canmore in comfortable vans.
- This four hour tour follows the pristine mountain trails of Goat Pond for 24 kms, and includes a 30 minute introduction and instruction, an exhilarating 3 hours of dog sledding fun, and a 30 minute campfire lunch (Lunch is not included in the tour price but can be purchased while booking the tour.)
- The self-driven sleds are the most popular option and allow you to drive your very own dog team along with your friends and family without an instructor. Please bear in mind that dog sledding is a “sport” and does require some physical activity while driving the sled, the person driving will need to be fairly fit as they will be required to get off the sled at some points and help push it up some of the steeper sections of the trail.
- The guide driven sleds are ideal for anyone that would prefer to leave the driving to an experienced instructor (eg: guests with any physical challenges or medical conditions that may make driving a sled unsafe or uncomfortable, or heart conditions or recent injuries). Instructor driven sleds can also be an excellent choice for visitors who may have a lot of questions and would like to learn even more about dog sledding.
- There is a maximum of four people per sled, with a maximum combined weight of 370lbs on a sled with an instructor and a maximum combined weight of 500lbs for a sled without an instructor (self-driving).

- There are no age or height restrictions to ride in a sled but taller people may have to bend their knees slightly to feel more comfortable in the sled. Height and weight restrictions may apply to children wanting to drive the sleds.
- The comfortable handcrafted sleds are waterproof and windproof, and are equipped with beautiful, warm Pendleton merino wool blankets, water resistant sled bags and 6 inch upholstered cushions.
- For your safety, comfort and enjoyment, please dress appropriately for your dog sledding tour. All guests must wear snow pants, a winter jackets, warm winter boots, a warm toque/beanie/hat that covers your ears, warm gloves or mittens, wool socks, warm under-layers, a scarf/something to cover your face and goggles or sunglasses. A detailed list of what to wear and what not to wear will be included in your booking confirmation. Snow pants, winter jackets and warm winter boots are available for rent if needed.
- The Siberian Huskies are a pack of beautiful, intelligent, personable, happy, healthy, trustworthy and eager sled dogs who are absolutely head-over-heals in love with their job! There will be many opportunities to interact and cuddle with the adorable, healthy, well-groomed husky teams.
- Sunfeather Winterlude is a four hour tour with the option to drive your own dog sled in picturesque Spray Lakes, Canmore. This four hour tour consists of three hours of sled time and an optional campfire lunch(Lunch is not included in the tour price but can be purchased while booking the tour.)
